Variance Request: None

Resident's Comments: None

Old Business: Chief Nick Clark with the St. Matthews Fire Department spoke to the Council regarding help with allocating ARPA funds for emergency services. They are asking for 4% of Woodlawn Park's ARPA funds to help pay each person working during the pandemic. They are asking for funds from the Home Rule Cities. Metro Louisville has donated $3.7 million and they are seeking another $1.1 - $1.5 million from area cities. After much discussion from the Council, Attorney Matt Carey suggested a vote to see whether Woodlawn Park would donate funds. The vote was 3 ayes, 2 nays and 1 absent. The consensus of the Council was to respectfully decline giving funds to the Suburban Fire District.

New Business: None
